Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

ON FLOWERS AND FLOWER-GARDENS.

BY D. L. RICHARDSON.

Price One Rupee.

[The work will extend to about 100 (or more) closely printed octavo pages. There will be a few lithographic drawings illustrating the Language of Flowers, and an Appendix of Practical Instructions and useful information respecting the Anglo-Indian Flower Garden.]

The above work is founded on an article first published in the Calcutta Literary Gazette, but the text has been since so greatly enlarged, and so copiously illustrated with additional quotations from the British Poets that it may be regarded as a new work. As only a comparatively small number of copies will be printed, subscribers are requested to send in their names without delay to the publishers, Messrs. P. S. DeRozario and Co., Tank Square, Calcutta.

Notice.

NEITHER the Captain nor Owners of the ship
John Macviar will be responsible for any debt or debts which may be contracted by her crew during the ship's stay in Calcutta.

Notice.

As there appears to be a mistaken impression gaining ground, that unregistered letters often miscarry, and that there is less security now for the proper delivery of letters than there was before the introduction of the use of Stamps, the public are hereby invited to bring to notice, on every occasion, any grievance or cause of complaint which they may have against the Post Office Department, and are assured, that every attention will be given to complaints, and that the matters brought to notice will be promptly and thoroughly investigated.

The Deputy Post-master General of Calcutta, and the Post-masters of all Mofussil Post Offices within this Presidency, have been duly instructed on the subject, and will be prepared to secure, and promptly to investigate, all matters of complaint that may be preferred.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1855.

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

THE following Bill, as settled in Committee of the whole Council on the 9th of June 1855, is re-published for general information:—

A Bill for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in the Territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company; It is enacted as follows:—

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, every Moonsiff's Court shall be a Court of Small Causes for the trial of summary actions, and shall exercise summary jurisdiction under the following rules.

II. All claims for money due, whether on Bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of Fifty Rupees, shall be tried summarily in a Court of Small Causes; provided that a summary action in such Court shall not lie in any of the following cases:—

1st.—On balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents.

2nd.—For a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or a legacy or part of a legacy under a will.

3rd.—For any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distrainments for rent, for which claim, or for any part whereof,

a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department, if commenced in due time.

4th.—For the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

5th.—For any claim which, irrespectively of the amount thereof, is not according to law cognizable by a Moonsiff in his ordinary jurisdiction.

III. No person whatever shall, by reason of jurisdiction of the place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court, provided that, if an action be brought against several defendants, of whom one shall be resident as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

IV. Claims which can be tried in a summary action in a Small Cause Court Claims which can be tried under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court.

but nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature, or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by village Moonsiffs or village or district Panchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Panchayet under Regulation VII. of 1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the Rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazaars, in Cantonments, and stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the Rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

his claim to a Judge verbally; in which case it shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, by the Judge himself, or by an Officer of the Court in his presence and under his personal superintendence, upon stamped paper to be provided by the plaintiff for that purpose; or the plaintiff or his authorized agent may present to the Judge a plaint in the vernacular language of the Court.

XII. The plaint, whether taken down in writing in the Court, or presented

Form of plaint. in writing, shall state briefly the name, designation, and residence of the plaintiff, and also, if known, the name, designation, and residence of the defendant, the substance and value of the claim, and the date of the cause of action, according to one of the forms contained in the Appendix A, or to the like effect.

XIII. If the plaintiff sue on a bond, or rely

Documentary evidence to be produced in support of his claim on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making or presenting his complaint, and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; and unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court may see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to profit in support of his claim.

XIV. The Court, having received a plaint,

Mode of procedure after plaint received. shall proceed thereupon to make inquiry, by examination of the plaintiff or his agent, upon oath or affirmation, as to the merits, and shall record the substance of the examination. The Court shall reject the plaint unless it appear that the plaintiff has cause of action, or if it shall appear that the defendant or the matter of the suit is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the action is barred by the lapse of time. If the plaint be not rejected, it shall be filed together with any document produced in support thereof, unless the document be a book; in which case, the Court, after examining and comparing the copy of the entry produced with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the plaintiff.

XV. The Court, upon rejecting a plaint, shall record its decision, which shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge, together with the reasons upon which it is founded.

On rejection of plaint, Court to record its decision and the reasons, in the language of the Judge.

XVI. If the plaint shall be admitted, the Court shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant in the form laid down in the Appendix B, or to the like effect.

XVII. Clause 1.—A copy of the plaint shall be left with the defendant when the summons is served upon him; and if the plaintiff require the personal attendance of the defendant, and satisfy the judge that such personal attendance is necessary, or the Judge of his own accord require such personal attendance, the summons shall contain an order for the defendant to appear personally in Court on a day to be specified in the summons, otherwise the summons shall order the defendant to appear personally, or by an Agent duly authorized on his behalf who has personal knowledge of the subject or who shall be accompanied by a witness who has such personal knowledge.

Clause 2.—If there be more than one defendant, the plaintiff or the Judge may require the personal attendance of any one or more of the defendants, and the same shall be specified in the summons, which shall be served on each of the defendants.

Clause 3.—The day to be specified in the summons shall be fixed with reference to the state of the file and the distance that the defendant may be, or be supposed to be, at the time, from the place where the Court is held; and the summons shall order the defendant to produce any document which he may have in his possession, of which the plaintiff demands inspection, or upon which the defendant may intend to rely in support of his defence.

Clause 4.—Nothing in this Section shall be deemed to require the personal attendance of any defendant, who, at the time of issuing the summons, is bona fide residing beyond fifty miles from the place where the Court is situated.

Defendants residing fifty miles distant from the Court exempted from personal attendance.

XVIII. No misnomer, or inaccurate description of any person or place, in any summons or other proceeding, shall vitiate the same, if the person or place be therein so described as to be sufficiently identified.

Summons how to be served.
The summons shall be served by a single peon, by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally when practicable, or if the summons cannot be served on the defendant personally, by delivering a copy of it, together with a copy of the plaint, to some adult male member or servant of his family, residing or being in his dwelling-house or place of business, or by affixing a copy of the summons and a copy of the plaint to some conspicuous part of his usual place of abode or place of business, and also by affixing copies of the same in the Court room. The summons in either case shall be served a sufficient time before the day fixed for the appearance of the defendant, to enable him to appear in Court on that day.

If summons has been personally served Nazir to endorse the fact of such service.

XXI. If personal service be not effected, the Nazir shall endorse on the summons the reason of not serving it personally, and how it has been served.

XXII. When a summons or other process is required to be served or executed in a place beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, such summons or other process shall be transmitted to the Court of Small Causes within whose jurisdiction the summons or other process is required to be served, whether such Court of Small Causes be within the local limits of the jurisdiction of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts or not, and a Judge of such Court shall back the same, and cause it to be served in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if it were a process issued by such Judge, and shall return the summons or other process to the Court issuing the same with a certificate of the Nazir of what shall have been done thereon.

XXIII. Clause 1.—When a summons has been served on a defendant, and he does not attend on the day fixed for his appearance, if the Nazir's report show that the service has not been made in sufficient time to admit of the defendant conveniently attending the Court on that day, the Court may adjourn the hearing to another day, which shall be made known to the parties by a proclamation affixed in a conspicuous place in the Court room.

Clause 2.—Any Nazir who shall wilfully make any false statement in respect of the service or the non-service of a summons by any endorsement on such summons, or for personating any party to a suit, respecting the service or non-service of the summons, or shall personate any party to a suit, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, with or without hard labour, or with fine, or with both.

XXIV. Upon the appearance of the parties

On appearance of parties, defence to be made orally and reduced into writing, after which the parties may be examined by the Court, or cross-examine each other.

On the day named in the summons, or upon any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, for sufficient reason to be recorded by the Judge, the Court shall call upon the defendant, or his pleader or agent, to make his defence : the defence shall be made either in writing in the language of the Court or verbally, and if made verbally shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, either by the Judge himself, or by an officer of the Court in the presence and under the personal superintendence of the Judge ; after which the Judge shall proceed to examine such of the parties as may be present, and either party or his agent may cross-examine the other. If either of the parties be not bound to attend personally, any agent by whom he shall appear, or any witness who shall accompany such agent, shall be examined and cross-examined in like manner as the party himself would have been if he had attended personally.

XXV. If either of the parties shall bring forward a witness on such day, the Witnesses when to be examined. Judge may take the evidence of such witness either on that day, or on any subsequent day which may be fixed for the examination of witnesses.

XXVI. The examination of the parties or their Clause 2.—If the defendant, in support of his

Documentary evidence how given. defence, rely on any document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making his defence, and the Court shall file the same ; and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of such entry, and the Court, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the defendant ; and, unless such document as above mentioned be delivered in or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of the defence.

XXIX. The parties shall bring their witnesses

Parties shall produce their witnesses on the day of trial ; or Court, on application of either party, shall issue summons for the attendance of a witness on such day, either to give evidence or to produce a document, he shall apply to the Court, after the recording of the issues and in sufficient time before the day fixed for the trial of the issues, to enable the witnesses to be summoned to attend on that day ; and the Court shall issue a summons according to the form contained in Appendix C., or to the like effect, requiring such witness to attend.

XXX. Every summons, whether to an adverse

Also parties under certain circumstances, unless required to attend as witnesses. bound to attend in person if of the female sex and of a rank and description which, according to the prejudices of the country, would render it improper to require her personal attendance in Court. A plaintiff or defendant may be excused by the Judge from attending in person, if there be a Co-plaintiff or Co-defendant who appears in person, or if the opposite party be willing to excuse his attendance, or if the Court be tified that there is a reasonable excuse bond-fide for the non-attendance of such party; but any such party may be compelled to attend or give evidence as a witness in the suit under the law applicable to the attendance of parties to a suit as witnesses.

XXXV. If a plaintiff, or a defendant setting up a cross-demand against the plaintiff, be excused by the Court from personal appearance, such plaintiff or defendant shall appoint a person to attend the Court on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject of the claim or demand, and who shall be liable to be examined and cross-examined in the same manner as the plaintiff or defendant would have been if he had personally attended. The Court may also, if it think fit, order that the party excused shall be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

XXXVI. If on the day fixed by the summons for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, prior to the recording of issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, the Court shall nonsuit the plaintiff.

XXXVII. If on any such day the defendant only appear and dispute the demand, the Court shall dismiss the case with costs, unless the defendant admit the cause of action, or any part of it; in which case the Court shall proceed to give judgment for the plaintiff upon such admission without costs: provided that such judgment, if there be several defendants, shall be only against the defendant who makes the admission.

XXXVIII. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, or that the defendant has come to the knowledge of such summons, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and after considering the allegations of the plaintiff, and any documentary or oral evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may make an ex parte decree against the defendant.

XXXIX. If the defendant shall appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under the last preceding Section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited; if only one of the parties appear, issue to be tried ex parte.

If defendant appear on a day to which the case is postponed, the Court may allow him to be heard in answer to the suit.

may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited. If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue shall be tried and determined ex parte.

XLI. If a decree be made ex parte and the party against whom such decree shall have been made appear, either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff within fifteen days from the date of

of law, or the construction of a document affecting the decision of the case, may arise, on which the Court may entertain reasonable doubts, and which it may be requested by either party to reserve for the opinion of the Sudder Court, the Court may draw up a statement of the case, and submit it with its own opinion for the decision of the Sudder Court.

LXIII. If the Court refuse the application of any of the parties to a suit for a reference to the Sudder Court, it shall make a note on the record of the grounds of the application and the reasons for refusal.

LXIV. If such case be stated before the issue of a summons to the defendant, notice of such reference to the Sudder Court (which notice shall briefly set forth the nature of the claim and the question referred) shall forthwith be served on the defendant in the same manner as a summons.

LXV. The Court may proceed in the case, notwithstanding a reference to the Sudder Court, and may pass a decree contingent upon the opinion of the Sudder Court on the point referred; and no execution shall be issued until the receipt of the order of the Sudder Court.

LXVI. Cases referred for the opinion of the Sudder Court shall be dealt with by a full bench of that Court.

LXVII. The Sudder Court shall fix an early day for the hearing of the case, and shall notify the same by a proclamation to be fixed up in the Court House of that Court.

LXVIII. The parties to the case may appear and be heard in the Sudder Court in person or by pleader.

LXIX. The Sudder Court, when it has heard and considered the case, shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the seal of the Court and the signature of the Register, to the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case conformably to the decision of the Sudder Court.

LXX. Each party shall bear his own costs, if any, consequent on the reference of a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court.

LXXI. Process of execution shall be in the form contained in Appendix D or E, or to the like effect, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court. Any moveable property required to be seized under an execution shall be described in a list, to be furnished by the judgment creditor, and shall be pointed out by him or his agent. Process shall not be issued simultaneously against the person and property of a judgment debtor.

LXXIX.

Form of security by bond for payment of decree by judgment debtor.

security taken under the preceding Section shall be by bond in the form contained in Appendix G. If default shall happen in the fulfilment of the conditions of the bond, the judgment creditor may, without a fresh action, sue out execution upon such bond under the rules of this Act, in like manner as if a decree had been passed against the surety, his heirs, executors, or administrators upon such bond.

LXXX.

No person to be imprisoned a second time, under same judgment, but his property to be liable to attachment.

Any person once discharged from jail shall not be imprisoned a second time under the same judgment, but such discharge shall not extinguish the liability of such person under the decree, or exempt any property liable to attachment in execution of the same.

LXXXI.

Diet money to be deposited at the time of issue of warrant.

Any person suing out process of execution against the body of any person under this Act shall deposit with the Nazir of the Court, at the time of the issue of the warrant, diet money for one month of thirty days, at such rate as the Court may direct, not exceeding two annas per diem, unless the Court, for any special reason, direct the deposit after a higher rate, which shall not exceed four annas per diem.

LXXXII.

Payment of diet money in advance during imprisonment.

Payment of diet money at the same rate shall be made previous to the commencement of each succeeding month of the imprisonment, in failure of which the party confined shall be discharged.

LXXXIII.

Diet money to be costs in suit.

All diet money spent in providing subsistence for any prisoner shall be added to the costs in the suit, and any diet money not so spent shall be returned to the party who deposited the same.

LXXXIV.

Court may examine judgment debtor touching his property.

The Court, at the instance of the judgment creditor, may, at any time after judgment, summon the judgment debtor, and any other person whom it may think necessary, and examine him upon oath or affirmation touching the property of the judgment debtor and his means of satisfying the judgment; and if such judgment debtor, or other person, on such examination, shall wilfully misrepresent any matter on which he may be examined, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be proceeded against, and, upon conviction, punished accordingly.

LXXXV.

Judgment debtor may deposit money in Court: no interest allowed on such deposits.

A judgment debtor may at any time, deposit in Court any sum, or any part of any sum, of money which he may have been adjudged to pay, and the sum so deposited shall be paid over to the party entitled to receive the same; and no interest shall be allowed to such party upon such deposit from the date on which it was made, whether it be in full of the judgment, or fall short thereof.

LXXXVI.

Execution when cross-judgments have been obtained.

When cross-judgments shall have been obtained between two parties, execution shall issue only upon the one which shall be for the larger sum, and for so much only as shall remain after deducting the smaller sum.

LXXXVII.

Tools and implements of business and seed-grain excepted from execution.

In executing a writ of execution against the moveable property of a debtor liable under this Act, the Nazir shall except the tools and implements of the trade or business of such debtor and seed intended for the sowing of land cultivated by him.

LXXXVIII.

Custody and sale of moveable property taken in execution.

No sale of any moveable property taken in execution shall be made until after the end of six days at least next following the day on which such moveable property may have been so taken, unless such moveable property be of a perishable nature or upon the request in writing of the party whose property has been taken. Until such sale, the moveable property shall be deposited by the Nazir in some fit place, or it may remain in custody of some fit person approved by the Nazir.

LXXXIX.

Court to stay sale of moveable property seized if a third party claim any interest therein.

If, within the period of five days, a third party appear before the Court, and by petition, supported by his oath or affirmation, claim a right or interest in any of the moveable property seized, the Court shall stay the sale of such property.

XC.

Court to adjudicate such claims.

The Court shall adjudicate upon such claim, and make such order between the claimant and the plaintiff and defendant in the original suit as shall seem fit.

XCI.

Mode of disposing of such claims and effect of judgment.

In trying such claims the Court shall be guided by the rules contained in this Act so far as they may be applicable; and the judgment passed by the Court upon such claim shall have the same effect and be subject to the same rules as a judgment in a summary action instituted under the provisions of this Act.

XCII.

Third party failing to establish his claim, liable to pay compensation to judgment creditor.

If such third party shall fail to establish his right to the property seized, the Court, at the time of disposing of the case, may award to the judgment creditor against such third party, as part of the costs, such sum as it may consider sufficient to cover any loss of interest or damage which such judgment creditor may have sustained by reason of the postponement of the sale of such property.

XCIII.

Which of several judgment creditors is entitled to a preferential right to the proceeds of sale.

If several judgments be recovered under this Act against the same party, the judgment creditor who first furnishes a list of moveable property to be seized in execution shall have a preferential right to have the whole of his claim satisfied from the proceeds of the sale of such property; but this rule shall not apply to any creditor who shall refuse to maintain his right to bring such property to sale against a third person who may claim the same, nor to any judgment which shall be proved to have been obtained exclusively to defraud creditors.

XCIV. No irregularity in publishing or conducting a sale of moveable property under an execution shall vitiate such sale; but this rule shall not be held to deprive any person, who may sustain damage by reason of such irregularity, from recovering such damage by action.

XCV. If a judgment creditor be unable to enforce or obtain satisfaction of a judgment by execution against the person or moveable property of the debtor within the jurisdiction of the Court which pronounced the same, the Judge of such Court, if he has a general jurisdiction by virtue of which he has power to issue execution against immoveable property for the satisfaction of decrees, shall, upon the application of the judgment creditor, issue execution against any immoveable property of the defendant, which the plaintiff shall point out, within his general jurisdiction, under the same rules and procedure, and subject to the same appeal, as in cases which fall within his general jurisdiction; or the Court, on the application of the judgment creditor, shall grant him a copy of the judgment and a certificate of any sum remaining due under it, and on the presentation of the copy and certificate to any other Civil Court of Her Majesty or of the East India Company within the said Territories, such Court shall proceed to enforce such judgment by process either against the person or against the moveable or immoveable property of the debtor, according to its own rules and mode of procedure, under Act No. XXIII. of 1852. Provided that no such judgment shall be removed into any Court other than a Court of Small Causes for the purpose of enforcing the same against the person or moveable property of a debtor within the local limits of a Court of Small Causes which such Court might levy under a decree of its own. Provided also, that Section I. of Act XXIII. of 1840 shall not extend to any writ or process of execution issued out of a Small Cause Court.

XCVI. Every process under this Act shall issue under the seal and signature of the Court, and shall be directed to the Nazir of the Court, and shall be served or executed by him, or by a single officer of his establishment.

XCVII. If any person resists the execution of a process issued under this Act, the Court may, on the statement on oath of the peon or other Officer resisted, summon the offender to answer the charge; and if, after due service of the summons, he fail to attend, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. If the charge be proved, the Court may punish the offender by a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the Civil Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. All orders passed by a Court of Small Causes, under this Section, shall be appealable to the Zillah Judge.

XCVIII. The Judge of each district shall, with the approval of the Sudder Court, prepare a table of the costs of serving pro-new evidence or matter material to the issue of the case which the petitioner had no knowledge of, or could not produce at the time of trial.

Clause 3.—The Court, with sanction of Zillah Judge, may order re-hearing of a suit on certain grounds.

Clause 4.—The Zillah Judge may, upon the application of either party, set aside a judgment of the Small Cause Court, and make such investigation into the merits of the case, and pass such decision thereon, as to him may seem fit, for any of the following special reasons, namely—

1. The rejection of evidence which ought to have been admitted, or the admission of evidence which ought to have been rejected, if the Judge be of opinion that the admission of the evidence improperly rejected, or the rejection of the evidence improperly admitted, would have been likely to cause a different finding upon any material issue in the case.

2. Substantial defect in the procedure or investigation of a case in the Small Cause Court, or misconduct of the opposite party or of the Small Cause Court, from which there may be strong probable grounds for presuming a failure of justice; but no decision of a Small Cause Court shall be reversed or altered, nor shall a re-hearing be directed in any case, upon the ground that the decision of any question of fact is contrary to, or not warranted by, the evidence duly taken in the case.

C. Upon the application of either of the parties, the Zillah Judge may state a case for the opinion of the Sudder Court, if he shall be of opinion that the decision of the Small Cause Court upon the construction of a document, or upon any point of law or usage having the force of law, affecting the merits of the case, is erroneous; and the Sudder Court, upon the receipt of such case, shall proceed in the manner laid down in Sections LXVII. to LXX. of this Act.

C. The application under Section XCIX. or

Applications to Zillah Judge under the two preceding Sections to be written on stamped paper. C. to the Zillah Judge shall be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for petitions to the Zillah Court, provided that, when such value may be of higher amount than the value of the stamp prescribed for the petition of plaint by Section VIII. of this Act, the application may be written on stamped paper of the value prescribed for the petition of plaint, or if no stamp be prescribed for the plaint, the application may be on unstamped paper. Provided also, that, if the application be successful, the value of the stamp, if any, shall be returned to the petitioner.

CII. Any application, either to the Zillah

Applications to Zillah Judge or to Small Cause Court under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be presented within thirty days from the date of the decision; and no re-hearing, new trial, or reference to the Sudder Court shall be granted, unless the application be accompanied by a deposit in the Court of the whole amount, if any, decreed against the petitioner, whether absolutely, or as an alternative, except when the amount of the judgment and costs of execution has been paid into Court, or has been levied by process of execution: the amount if deposited in Court, or if levied and not paid over, shall remain in deposit subject to the order of the Court.

CIII. The Court to which such application is made may interrogate the applicant or his agent, upon oath or solemn affirmation, previously to deciding upon the application; and without summoning the opposite party, reject the petition.

CIV. No decision of a Small Cause Court shall be annulled or otherwise altered to the prejudice of the opposite party, nor shall a case be referred to the Sudder Court without notice to such party to enable him to appear and be heard.

CV. Every order passed by a Zillah Judge, or by the Small Cause Court, upon an application under Section XCIX. or C. of this Act, shall be final and not open to appeal or review.

CVI. A nonsuit shall be no impediment to the institution of a new suit on the same cause of action where the party is not precluded by lapse of time or otherwise under the general law.

CVII. The Zillah Judge may transfer any case pending in a Small Cause Court within his Zillah to any other, Small Cause Court in the same Zillah, recording his reasons for such transfer.

CVIII. It shall be lawful for the Executive Government in any of the said Presidencies to extend the summary jurisdiction of the Moon-siff's Court to Three Hundred Rupees.

Local Governments may extend summary jurisdiction of Moon-siff's Courts to Three Hundred Rupees.

Local Governments empowered to invest Civil Courts with summary jurisdiction to the extent of Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits of jurisdiction.

East India Company to invest any Civil Court of the East India Company now existing, or which may hereafter be established with the sanction of the Governor General in Council, with the summary jurisdiction of a Small Cause Court under this Act, for the adjudication of claims to an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Rupees, and from time to time to determine the territorial limits within which such Court shall exercise such summary jurisdiction. Provided that no Court shall be invested with jurisdiction as a Small Cause Court beyond the amount of its ordinary jurisdiction.

CX. Provided that, in claims for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, it shall be at the option of the plaintiff to sue in a summary action in a Small Cause Court or otherwise; but no party having instituted a regular suit in a case in which he might have sued in a summary action under this Act, shall recover costs in such suit beyond the amount which he might have recovered in a summary action, nor any costs of appeal arising out of such regular suit. The defendant, however, in such case, if the judgment be in his favor, shall be entitled to recover the full costs either of the original suit or of an appeal arising therefrom, as if this Act had not been passed.

CXI. This Act shall not extend to any suit instituted before this Act shall come into operation.

CXII. The words "Civil Jail" shall include the Civil Jail of the Zillah and any place appointed by the Executive Government for the confinement of prisoners in civil cases by any Court constituted under this Act. The word "Nazir" shall include any officer of a Court authorized to serve or execute its process. Unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number; and words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

CXIII. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st day of January 1856.

Notice

Is hereby given that the Government Bullock Train will cease to run above Kurnaul after the 15th instant, owing to the road being still impracticable for the successful management of that establishment during the rainy season.

From the above date, all Packages for stations above Kurnaul will, as heretofore, be conveyed in country carts, with every possible degree of care, but there can be no guarantee against possible damage from wet, as many Rivers and Nullahs without bridges have to be crossed.

The Bullock Train between Lahore and Mooltan will probably be maintained throughout the rainy season.

I. In each of the Presidencies of Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, every Moonsiff's Court shall be a Court of Small Causes for the trial of summary actions, and shall exercise summary jurisdiction under the following rules.

II. All claims for money due, whether on Bond or other contract, or for rent, or for personal property, or for the value of such property, or for damages, when the debt, damage, or demand does not exceed in amount or value the sum of Fifty Rupees, shall be tried summarily in a Court of Small Causes; provided that a summary action in such Court shall not lie in any of the following cases:—

1st.—On balance of partnership account, unless the balance shall have been struck by the parties or their agents.

2nd.—For a share or part of a share under an intestacy, or a legacy or part of a legacy under a will.

3rd.—For any claim relating to arrears or exactions of rent, or to alleged illegal distrainments for rent, for which claim, or for any part whereof,

a summary suit could have been brought before an Officer of Government in the Revenue Department, if commenced in due time.

4th.—For the recovery of damages on account of alleged personal injuries, unless special damage of a pecuniary nature shall have resulted from such injury.

5th.—For any claim which, irrespectively of the amount thereof, is not according to law cognizable by a Moonsiff in his ordinary jurisdiction.

III. No person whatever shall, by reason of jurisdiction of the place of birth, or by reason of descent, be excepted from the jurisdiction of any Court of Small Causes constituted under this Act, and any such Court shall be competent to hear and determine all claims cognizable by such Court, when the cause of action shall have arisen, or the defendant at the time of the commencement of the suit shall reside as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such Court; provided that, if an action be brought against several defendants, of whom one shall be resident as a fixed inhabitant, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within the jurisdiction of which the cause of action shall have arisen, the action shall be brought in that Court.

IV. Claims which can be tried in a summary action in a Small Cause Court under Section II. of this Act

Claims which can be tried under this Act not to be cognizable in any other Court or in any other manner; but nothing in this Act shall be held to take away the jurisdiction which a Magistrate, or a person exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or an Assistant or a Deputy Magistrate can now exercise in regard to debts or other claims of a Civil nature, or the jurisdiction which can be exercised by village Moonsiffs or village or district Punchayets under the provisions of the Madras Code, or by Punchayet under Regulation VII. of 1827 of the Bombay Code, or by Military Courts of Request, or by a single Officer duly authorized and appointed under the Rules in force in the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay respectively, for the trial of small suits in Military Bazars, in Cantonments, and stations occupied by the troops of those Presidencies respectively, or by Punchayets in regard to suits against Military persons, according to the Rules in force under the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Provided that nothing in this Act shall render it necessary for any plaint to be written on stamped paper when the amount of debt or damage shall not exceed one rupee, nor shall render a stamp necessary in any place not now subject to a stamp law.

When plaint on plain paper may be received. Subsequent procedure for recovery of costs.

IX. Clause 1.—The Court, if satisfied of the inability of the plaintiff to pay the value of the stamp prescribed for plaints, may receive such plaint on plain paper.

Clause 2.—On the conclusion of the suit, the whole of the costs which would have been incurred by the plaintiff, had he been admitted to sue as a pauper, shall be ascertained and entered in the decree.

Clause 3.—If the decree is in favor of the plaintiff, the costs, or such part of them as the Court may decree, shall be recovered from the defendant for the benefit of the Government and other parties entitled thereto.

Clause 4.—If the decree is against the plaintiff, the defendant, if payment of costs is awarded, may proceed against the plaintiff under the ordinary rules for the enforcement of decrees.

X. In a suit instituted under this Act for a sum not exceeding Fifty Rupees, no stamp shall be required in respect of any petition or other proceeding connected with the suit, or with the execution of any order or judgment passed therein, or for copies of any papers, other than the stamp duty hereinbefore required on the plaint. In suits for an amount exceeding Fifty Rupees, the general Stamp Regulations in force in the several Presidencies shall be applicable.

XI. In order to the institution of a suit under this Act, a plaintiff may state his claim to a Judge verbally; in which case it shall be reduced into writing in the language of the Court, by the Judge himself, or by an Officer of the Court in his presence and under his personal superintendence, upon stamped paper to be provided by the plaintiff for that purpose; or the plaintiff or his authorized agent may present to the Judge a plaint in the vernacular language of the Court.

XII. The plaint, whether taken down in writing in the Court, or presented Form of plaint. in writing, shall state briefly the name, designation, and residence of the plaintiff, and also, if known, the name, designation, and residence of the defendant, the substance and value of the claim, and the date of the cause of action, according to one of the forms contained in the Appendix A, or to the like effect.

XIII. If the plaintiff sue on a bond, or rely Documentary evi. in support of his claim on any dence to be produced document in his possession other than an entry in a book, he shall deliver the same to the Court at the time of making or presenting his complaint, and if the document be an entry in a book, he shall produce the book to the Court, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies; and unless such document as above-mentioned be delivered in, or its non-production be sufficiently excused, or unless the Court may see fit to extend the time for producing the same, it shall not be admitted to proof in support of his claim.

XIV. The Court, having received a plaint, shall proceed thereupon to make inquiry, by examination of the plaintiff or his agent, upon oath or affirmation, as to the merits, and shall record the substance of the examination. The Court shall reject the plaint unless it appear that the plaintiff has a cause of action, or if it shall appear that the defendant or the matter of the suit is not within the jurisdiction of the Court, or that the action is barred by the lapse of time. If the plaint be not rejected, it shall be filed together with any document produced in support thereof, unless the document be a book; in which case, the Court, after examining and comparing the copy of the entry produced with the original, and marking the original, shall cause the copy to be filed and the original book to be returned to the plaintiff.

XV. The Court, upon rejecting a plaint, shall record its decision, which shall be reduced to writing in the vernacular language of the Judge, together with the reasons upon which it is founded.

On rejection of plaint, Court to record its decision and the reasons, in the language of the Judge.

XVI. If the plaint shall be admitted, the Court shall direct the issue of a summons to the defendant in the form laid down in the Appendix B, or to the like effect.

XVII. Clause 1.

XXXIV. A plaintiff or defendant shall not be

Females of rank, when parties to a suit, exempted from personal attendance. Also parties under certain circumstances, unless required to attend as witness. bound to attend in person if of the female sex and of a rank and description which, according to the prejudices of the country, would render it improper to require her personal attendance in Court. A plaintiff or defendant may be excused by the Judge from attending in person, if there be a Co-plaintiff or Co-defendant who appears in person, or if the opposite party be willing to excuse his attendance, or if the Court be satisfied that there is a reasonable excuse bond-fide for the non-attendance of such party ; but any such party may be compelled to attend and give evidence as a witness in the suit under the law applicable to the attendance of parties to a suit as witnesses.

XXXV. If a plaintiff, or a defendant setting up a cross-demand against the plaintiff, be excused by the Court from personal appearance, such plaintiff or defendant shall appoint a person to attend the Court on his behalf, who has personal knowledge of the subject of the claim or demand, and who shall be liable to be examined and cross-examined in the same manner as the plaintiff or defendant would have been if he had personally attended. The Court may also, if it think fit, order that the party excused shall be examined in any way in which an absent witness may be examined.

XXXVI. If on the day fixed by the summons for the appearance of the defendant, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case may be adjourned, prior to the recording of issues for trial, neither of the parties appear, the Court shall nonsuit the plaintiff.

XXXVII. If on any such day the defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case ; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

If defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case ; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

Proviso.

If defendant only appear and dispute the demand, Court to dismiss the case ; but if defendant admit the claim, Court shall decree upon such admission.

XXXVIII. If on any such day the plaintiff only appear, the Court, upon proof that the summons has been duly served according to the provisions of this Act, or that the defendant has come to the knowledge of such summons, shall proceed to examine the plaintiff or his agent, and after considering the allegations of the plaintiff, and any documentary or oral evidence adduced by him, may either dismiss the case, or postpone the hearing of it to a future day for the attendance of any witness the plaintiff may wish to call, or may make an ex parte decree against the defendant.

XXXIX. If the defendant shall appear on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the suit may be postponed under the last preceding Section, the Court may, upon such conditions, if any, as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, allow him to be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his attendance.

XL. If on the day fixed for the trial of any issue neither of the parties appear, the plaintiff shall be nonsuited. If on any such day one only of the parties appear, the issue shall be tried and determined ex parte.

If neither party appear on the day fixed for the trial of an issue, plaintiff to be nonsuited ; if only one of the parties appear, issue to be tried ex parte.

XLI. If a decree be made ex parte and the party against whom such decree shall have been made appear, either in person or by agent, if a plaintiff, within fifteen days from the date of the Court's order, and if a defendant, within such time as the Court shall deem reasonable under all the circumstances of the case, not exceeding three months after the defendant has been arrested, or some part of his property has been attached in execution of the decree, and shall show good and sufficient cause for his previous non-appearance, and shall satisfy the Court that there has been a failure of justice, the Court may, upon such terms and conditions as to costs or otherwise as it may think proper, revive the suit, and alter or rescind the decree according to the justice of the case, recording the reasons for so doing, and may also order restitution, if the decree shall have been executed, which order may be enforced in the same manner as a decree ; but no decree shall be reversed or altered without previously summoning the adverse party to appear and be heard in support of it.

XLII. Clause 1.—The defendant, in any action under this Act, may pay money into Court in satisfaction of the demand.

Clause 2.—If the defendant deposit less than the sum claimed, and the plaintiff elect to proceed in the case, and ultimately recover no further sum than that paid into Court, he shall be liable to the subsequent costs.

XLIII. No interest shall be allowed to a plaintiff on any sum paid by the defendant into Court, from the date of such payment, whether such sum be in full of the plaintiff's claim or fall short thereof.

No interest on deposits.

XLIV. A defendant may set off against the plaintiff's claim, in any suit under this Act, any demand for which he might have sued the plaintiff in the same Court ; but if the demand proposed to be set off exceed the amount cognizable by the Court, the defendant, previously to being allowed to set off the same, shall abandon the excess.

XLV. If the defendant in any case claim to set off any demand against the claim of the plaintiff, the Court shall find what amount is due to the plaintiff, and what amount, if any, is due to the defendant, and shall give judgment for the recovery of any sum which, upon such finding, shall appear due to either party.

XLVI. The judgment of the Court with respect to any demand which a defendant may claim to set off, shall have the same effect as if such sum had been claimed by the defendant in a separate action against the plaintiff.

XLVII. Clause 1.—If a plaintiff have a demand recoverable against two or more persons jointly answerable, he may sue any one or more of such persons without joining the other, and the dismissal of such suit or a decree therein shall bar his claim against the person not joined.

Plaintiff having a joint demand against several persons may sue one or more of them without the others.

Resistance of process.

XCVII. If any person resists the execution of a process issued under this Act, the Court may, on the statement on oath of the peon or other Officer resisted, summon the offender to answer the charge ; and if, after due service of the summons, he fail to attend, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. If the charge be proved, the Court may punish the offender by a fine not exceeding Fifty Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment in the Civil Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days. All orders passed by a Court of Small Causes, under this Section, shall be appealable to the Zillah Judge.

Legislative Council.

The 9th June 1855.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd June 1855, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 13th of September next:—

A Bill to Amend Act No. XXVIII. of 1839.

WHEREAS it is expedient to modify the said Act so far as it relates to the height of buildings within the walls of the Fort of Bombay—

I. It is hereby enacted that it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council, by order in writing to be signed by one of the Secretaries to Government, to allow the erection of any building, which now is or may be hereafter erected within the walls of the Fort of Bombay, of a greater height than 50 feet measured from the surface of the street, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM,
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT,

The 8th June 1855.

THE following Rules for the grant of Leave of Absence for regulating Deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances, and for limiting the period of Service of Civil Servants, are published for general information, and will take effect in all the Presidencies and Settlements under the Government of India from the date of the publication of this Notification, in supersession of the Rules of the 17th May 1843 and the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER I.

RULES FOR APPLICATION FOR LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section I. No Leave of Absence from any

Note.—This Rule must be considered as superseding the Rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to require such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially accepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Section II. The official allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the ~~date~~ he is quitting until his return, or, in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave, to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Section III. No Leave of Absence shall have any retrospective effect, except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

CHAPTER II.

RULES FOR SICK LEAVE.

Section IV. Upon application duly made, the Government may grant Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate to any Civil Servant, to any place in India, in Europe, or elsewhere, as he may consider most conducive to the restoration of his health, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort.

Section V. When an application for Leave of Absence is made on the ground of ill-health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate and a Statement of the case from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating, from personal observation, the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed, as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place in India, or in Europe, or elsewhere, as laid down in Section IV.; and in case of the applicant visiting the Presidency preparatory to obtaining leave, the Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, on their being satisfied, on a perusal of the Medical Attendant's statement of the case, that the leave applied for is absolutely necessary towards his recovery. Should the applicant's Medical Attendant be of opinion that he ought to proceed to a Sanitarium or other place without visiting the Presidency, the Certificate must, in the first instance, be counter-signed by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which the applicant may be located, and afterwards submitted with the statement of the case for the consideration and counter-signature of the Members of the Medical Board.

The Certificate shall be given in the following form:—

I, A. B., Surgeon at or of ——— do hereby certify that E. F., of the Civil Service, is in a bad state of health, and I solemnly and sincerely declare that, according to the best of my judgment, a change of air is essentially necessary to his recovery, and do therefore recommend that he may be permitted to proceed to Sea, (or to such place as the Surgeon may think proper, expressing it in the Certificate.)

The following form shall be observed by the Members of the Medical Board or the Superintending Surgeon, in counter-signing the Surgeon's Certificate:—

We (or I) do hereby certify, that, according to the best of our (or my) professional judgment, after careful personal examination of his case, we, (or I) consider the state of health of E. F., to be such as to render Leave of Absence for a period of ——— absolutely necessary (or highly desirable) for his recovery.

An application for extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate to a like effect from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended, together with a statement showing sufficient reason for the extension solicited; and such Certificate must be counter-signed by the Members of the Medical Board, or by the Superintending Surgeon of the Division, in which the applicant may be located, as the case may be, on perusal of the statement. In like manner, if the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate and Statement to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance, and the period of it, to be stated, and the Certificate to be counter-signed by the Examining Physician of the East India Company if the applicant is in England, or if not in England by the principal Medical authority of the Colony or Country to which the Absentee may have proceeded, or some sufficient reason stated for the want of such counter-signature if the Certificate be not so counter-signed. The Medical Board or Superintending Surgeon, before countersigning a Certificate as above-mentioned, must either personally examine the applicant or state some sufficient reason why they, or he, have or hath been unable to do so. When any of the required particulars are neglected, leave will be refused.

Section VI. The following conditions will in future attach to Leaves of Absence granted to Civil Servants who may be declared by a sufficient Medical Certificate to require such leave for the recovery of their health:—

1st.—The total period of absence, with the privileges hereinafter provided, shall not (save as specially excepted in Clause 5 of this Section and in Section VII. of these Rules) exceed eighteen months in the whole, nor shall it exceed fifteen months on any one occasion.

2ndly.—The office of the absentee will be considered to be vacated if he shall be absent beyond eighteen months altogether, or beyond fifteen months at any one time unless he shall obtain leave under Clause 5 of this Section, such absence to be computed, if he shall proceed to a Sanitarium within the Presidency, from the date of his arrival thereto to the date of his quitting the Sanitarium; if to any place beyond the Presidency, but within the Continent of India, from the date of his leaving the frontier of his own Presidency to the date of his return thereto; and if he shall proceed to Sea, from the date of the sailing of the Vessel on which he may have embarked from any Port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency, to the date of his arrival at any Port within the Presidency to which he belongs, or at any other Port which is not more distant from his Station than the Ports of his own Presidency.

3rdly.—The absentee will be entitled to draw a moiety of his salary, and the same will be paid to him during such period of absence, provided that he shall in no case draw a larger sum than Rupees 10,000 (£1,000) per annum, during that period. In cases in which the emolument of the absentee's office does not exceed Rupees 5,000 per annum, no deduction therefrom shall be made for the period of eighteen months, nor shall such a deduction be made in other cases as shall reduce the allowance below Rupees 5,000 (£500) per annum. In cases in which the salary of the absentee may not be of that amount, the full salary will be granted.

4thly.—For the interval elapsing between departure from Station to the commencement of reckoning absence or between the end of reckoning absence and re-arrival at Station, the absentee will be allowed a special leave for an additional period of one month, two months or three months according to the distance to be travelled as prescribed in Section XX. of these Rules, and during this additional period the absentee will be entitled to draw the same salary as is allowed by Clause II. of this Section.

5thly.—If the absentee shall apply under Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months or fifteen months at any one time, and it shall appear to the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to be absolutely necessary after examination by their Medical Officer in England, that he should do so; the leave which may have been granted in India will, under the orders of the Honorable Court, be extended to the limit of two years, with permission to retain Office, and half salary within the limits enjoined, during such extension.

6thly.—If the absentee be compelled by the state of his health, under due Medical Certificate, to remain absent for a longer period than eighteen months, or fifteen months at any one time, or beyond two years in the case of an extension under Clause 4, he will, as before stated, vacate his appointment, but he will be permitted to receive an allowance at the rate of £500 per annum if above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, or of £250 if not above ten years standing at the time when the leave was granted, for such further period of absence as shall not exceed the entire term of three years in the whole. At the expiration of that term, all allowance must cease until he reports his return to his Presidency.

Section VII. If a Civil Servant of more than fifteen years' service, after having been absent on Sick Leave for eighteen months in the whole, or for fifteen months at one time, at whatever period of his service such Sick Leave shall have been taken, shall be again compelled by the same cause to apply for Leave of Absence, the Government of India and the subordinate Governments may, on special grounds, grant Leave of Absence for one further period not exceeding six months, during which the absentee may retain his office, and half his salary under the limits above enjoined.

Section VIII. If a Civil Servant, after fifteen years' service, shall be compelled by ill health to apply for further Leave of Absence, he may be permitted on special grounds to obtain it, but his absence will involve the loss of office and salary; the Government of India and the subordinate Governments will however, respectively, exercise a discretionary power to grant, in such last-mentioned cases, a sick absentee allowance, not exceeding Rupees 5,000 or £500 per annum, for a further period not exceeding twelve months.

Section IX. A Civil Servant who has taken Sick Leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843, will not be debarred by that circumstance from taking such leave again under the above Rules, with the privilege of retaining Office, provided the leave be not granted till three years have expired after his return from his leave under the Rules of the 17th May 1843.

Section X. None of the above-mentioned Rules will be applicable to Members of Council. Each Member may, however, with the special sanction of the Government, be permitted to be absent, under Medical Certificate, for a period not exceeding six months, retaining his office and receiving half his salary, which shall be paid to him during such absence, but if his absence shall exceed six months, his office will be vacated.

Section XI. Civil Servants who may desire to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above Rules, will be required to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their coming under retrenchment.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR SHORT LEAVE ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XII. The Government may grant to Civil Servants Leave of Absence to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere without any restrictions whatever as to the place to which they may resort for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such Servants—such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this Rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave; but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year, may obtain, under the like conditions, Leave of Absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of twenty-two months from the termination of their former leave; and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may, in like manner, be granted at the expiration of thirty-three months from the termination of the last preceding leave; but no leave shall be granted under this Rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this Rule, he shall forfeit all pay and allowances during the time of his remaining so absent without leave, and if he shall so continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate cannot be admitted to leave under this Rule in continuation of their Sick Leave; and if, while absent under this Rule, they be granted extended leave under Medical Certificate, they shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to Leave of Absence on Medical Certificate for the whole period of their absence.

Civil Servants who have been absent on Medical Certificate during any portion of a calendar year are not entitled to leave under this Rule during that year; but in determining the interval necessary to entitle a person to leave under this Rule, no reference will be made to any intermediate Leave of Absence that may have been granted under Section XIV. Clause I.

Section XIII. As a general Rule, when leave is granted under Section XII., such leave will be in one period only, whether for a whole month or less, and not in detached portions to complete one month within the year, and the term year shall be held, or mean the calendar year commencing with the 1st of January and ending with the 31st of December, but as an exception to this Rule, it shall be discretionary with the several Local Governments, where good cause is shown for the indulgence, and it is attended with no public inconvenience, to sanction Leave of Absence under this Rule to such parties as may not have occasion to apply for the whole at once, in instalments, not to exceed in the aggregate one month within the calendar year, on the understanding that no leave can be granted for any fresh calendar year until the completion of three months from the expiration of the entire leave or of the last instalment of leave taken in the past calendar year.

Section XIV., Clause I. The Government may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant to a Civil Servant special Leave of Absence on Private Affairs for six months, to any place in India, Europe or elsewhere, without any restrictions whatever as to the places to which he may resort, provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which he may be entitled without deduction, under Section XII., the absentee shall, for the period in excess, draw no more than one-half of his salary and allowances. After an absence of six months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Section XII.) any Office held by the absentee shall become vacant.

Clause II. The Leave granted under this Section will be computed from the date of the absentee's quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto, and a second leave of the same description cannot be taken till the expiration of six years from the date of return to duty from a former leave. No portion of the half salary allowed to be drawn will be claimable till the absentee shall have returned to his duty.

Clause III. It will be understood that leave under this Section is not to be granted as a matter of course to every applicant, but that it will be the duty of the Government to consider and determine whether the grounds of the application are sufficiently urgent to justify the concession of the leave.

CHAPTER IV.

FURLoughS ON PRIVATE AFFAIRS.

Section XV. In the place of the period of three years (in one term,) for which Furlough has hitherto been granted, Civil Servants will be allowed the option of taking a Furlough of three years as at present, or of dividing the Furlough into three periods of one year each, to be taken after successive periods of seven years service or into two periods, which may either be of one or two years respectively, or of eighteen months each, provided that, in every case, the Civil Servant shall declare, on taking his Furlough, whether he intends it to be for twelve, eighteen, twenty-four or thirty-six months, in order that the Government may make its arrangements accordingly. In case of a division, into two periods, the first Furlough must be taken after a residence of not less than ten years, and the second Furlough after a further residence in India of ten years from the date of return from the first Furlough; but Civil Servants returning on Furlough to Europe will continue, as at present, to vacate their offices.

Section XVI. The Furlough Allowance granted during the periods mentioned in the last Section will be at the rate of £500 per annum, and the receipt of it will not, on any grounds whatever, be permitted for any longer period than three years.

Section XVII. Civil Servants who may have been compelled by sickness to quit their duty under Medical Certificate, before completing seven years' residence in India, will be entitled to receive during their Furlough on Private Affairs, taken subsequently to their completion of that period of residence, the ordinary Furlough Allowance of £500 per annum, for three years.

Section XVIII., Clause I. In applying the foregoing Rules in substitution of those before existing, periods of absence to the limit of three years, will count as service in India in the twenty-five years entitling to the annuity, the present qualification of twenty-two years' residence being retained.

Clause II. Absence on Medical Certificate to the extent of one year will reckon as Service and residence in India, and be so computed in addition to the three years of absence which under the Clause next preceding are allowed to be reckoned as Indian Service. All periods of short Leave of Absence on Private Affairs taken under Sections XII. and XIV. of these Rules will also count as service and residence.

Section XIX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department will be subject to the Rules laid down in General Orders No. 1150 dated 17th November 1854, for the grant of Leave of Absence and Furlough to Officers holding Military Staff Appointments.

CHAPTER V.

RULES FOR JOINING STATIONS.

Section XX. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new Office

NOTE.— The time allowed for joining is computed from the date of the Order reaching the Officer appointed, for joining, accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last-mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods, respectively, shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the office shall be vacated, unless otherwise specially ordered by Government.

Section XXI. Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant, who shall be reported qualified for Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government, to any Civil Station, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station, an allowance at the rate of 8 annas per mile by the direct Post Road, according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station: if required in advance, an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Section XXII. The salary of office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in case of Junior Civil Servants, the salary of Assistants will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service unless forfeited under the preceding Rule, through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

Section XXIII. In case of a change of office, when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XX., regulating the time and distance for joining Station, shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that Rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join, a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER VI.

RULES FOR DEPUTATION ALLOWANCES.

Section XXIV. The sum of Company's Rupees

NOTE — This Rule will equally apply in case of a Political Resident taking a leave of one, two, or three months, for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction. The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance, in consideration of the necessary expenses of their position, will, in all cases of absence, be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties, to meet the necessary expenses of his position; provided however, that in the cases of Civil Servants appointed to offices of the description referred to subsequent to the 2nd June 1854, the sum of Rupees 50,000 shall be held to be the maximum salary, under the Government Resolution, No. 563, of that date.

Section XXV. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following rates, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:—

To Civil Servants not holding any substantive appointment, at the rate of 50 per cent. on the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, such Deputation Allowance being in addition to the Subsistence Allowance of their respective ranks.

To Civil Servants holding an office of inferior emolument, when officiating in an office of superior emolument, at the rate of 20 per cent. upon the monthly salary of the appointment officiated in, in all cases in which the salary of such appointment shall not exceed Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, and in respect to all appointments of which the salary shall be more than Company's Rupees 2,000 per mensem, at the rate of 20 per cent upon Company's Rupees 2,000, and of 10 per cent. on the amount in which the monthly salary may exceed Company's Rupees 2,000, provided however that no lower rate of Deputation Allowance shall be given than Rupees 200 per mensem.

The Deputation Allowance shall in all cases be in addition to the salary of the substantive appointment held by the Officer on deputation.

The above rates are granted provisionally, subject to future revision.

In the Punjab, Nagpore and other places, where appointments are by classes, the amount of Deputation Allowances, payable at the above rates, will be calculated, not upon the salary of the individual Officer holding the substantive appointment in which the Officer deputed may be temporarily officiating, but on the average rate of salary attached to the particular class to which the appointment may belong.

A Civil Servant acting for another shall have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These shall be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved, subject to the prescribed deductions.

A Civil Servant acting in an appointment, the salary of which is to be reduced on the retirement of the present incumbent, will draw Deputation Allowance on the reduced salary.

An Officer officiating in more than one appointment will be entitled to Deputation Allowance, regulated by the aggregate amount of the salary of the offices.

An Officer appointed permanently to a higher situation, but prevented from joining his appointment by an order of Government, and detained to officiate in a situation of still higher emolument than the one to which he has been permanently appointed, will be entitled to a Deputation Allowance in addition to the higher salary to which he has been promoted.

Section XXVI. No Civil Servant temporarily officiating for another, shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance, according to the prescribed scale, added to the permanent emoluments of the officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments, on being deputed to officiate for another, shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance, unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Section XXVII. No subordinate Officer acting for his principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same office or establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of one month, and then the allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to Deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Section XXVIII. Civil Servants, if deputed to act at a distance from the Stations where they are employed, or if ordered by Government on special duty, shall be permitted to draw Travelling Allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment.

CHAPTER VII.

RULES FOR LIMITING THE PERIOD OF SERVICE.

Section XXIX. After thirty-five years' service no Civil Servant shall be appointed to any new office, nor be permitted to retain an office which he has held for a period of five years and upwards, except in special cases, which are to be referred for the decision of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors. This Rule will be applicable to every Civil Servant appointed to office after its promulgation, and to the case of every other Civil Servant to whom it relates at the close of five years from the 25th August 1854.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES FOR THE GRANT OF LEAVE OF ABSENCE TO LAW OFFICERS.

Section XXX. The East India Company's Law Officers may obtain Sick Leave and Short Leave on Private Affairs under the conditions prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, both as respects the periods of absence and the limitation of allowances during such absence. Leave will however only be granted at the convenience of the Government, and no additional expense will on any consideration be incurred by the Government on account thereof.

If any Law Officer shall quit his duty, save on leave under Medical Certificate or on Short Leave on Private Affairs, he will be considered to have vacated his appointment.

CHAPTER IX.

RULES FOR CHAPLAINS AND ASSISTANT CHAPLAINS.

Section XXXI. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may take Furlough on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate, also privilege leave and leave for short periods on Private Affairs and on Medical Certificate in or out of India, on the same terms and conditions as Military Officers, with the following modifications:—

1st.—Chaplains being allowed to retire after twenty years' service, the period of Furlough on Private Affairs, is in their case limited to the present term of three years. The Furlough may however either be taken in one period, or be divided into two periods, whether of eighteen months each, or of two years and one year, respectively, and if divided, the first Furlough may be taken, as at present, after seven years' residence, and the second Furlough after a further residence, of ten years in India. As respects Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains appointed before the 11th January 1854, when the period of Service was only eighteen years, their second Furlough, if they should exercise the option of taking Furlough in two periods, will be available after a second residence in India for a term of eight years.

2ndly.—No Furlough or Leave of Absence, whether on Private Affairs or on Sick Certificate, taken in Europe or elsewhere out of India, in excess of three years, will be allowed to count as Service in India in the twenty years which qualifies Chaplains for their Retiring Pensions.

Section XXXII. The Furlough Pay of Chaplains will remain as at present. With regard to their allowance during Sick Leave to any place out of India, they shall receive salary (but at a rate not exceeding £600 per annum) for the first six months of absence, and, for the remaining twelve months, an allowance equal to the Furlough Pay of their standing. If the leave be extended, an allowance equal to Furlough Pay may be drawn for a further period of eighteen months.

Military Department, No. 63 of 1855.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

PARA. 1. We received on the 25th ultimo an announcement that, at the recommendation of the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, the General Commanding-in-Chief would advise the Queen to declare it to be Her Majesty's pleasure that Officers of the East India Company's Army shall have everywhere rank and precedence with Officers of Her Majesty's Army according to the dates of their respective Commissions.

2. We expressed, in reply, our sincere gratification at this announcement, and we observed that the result would be in the highest degree, satisfactory to the Officers of the Company's Army, as manifesting the desire of Her Majesty's Government and of General Viscount Hardinge to confer upon them every advantage in respect to rank and precedence which is consistent with the constitution of the Service of the East India Company.

3. The following is a copy of the Official Order, as published in the London Gazette of the 1st instant:

Memorandum, Horse Guards, 25th April 1855.

"In order to remove any doubt which may exist as to the rank and precedence of the Officers of the Hon'ble East India Company's Service, it is Her Majesty's pleasure, that Officers of the Honorable East India Company's Service, whose commissions shall be signed by authorities duly deputed to do so by Her Majesty, shall have rank and precedence with Officers of Her Majesty's regular Army according to the dates of their Commissions in all parts of Her Majesty's dominions or elsewhere."

We are, &c.,

EDMUND DRUMMOND,
Accountant to the
Govt. of Bengal.

Accountant's Office,
The 15th June 1855.

No. 1381.

Notification.

THE Most Noble the Governor General in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 4th September 1854, having decided that the practice of this Office, with reference to the salaries of Uncovenanted Officers when transferred from one District to another, in charging salaries only from the date of their joining their new appointments, and not from the date of their relief from their old posts, is wrong, all Officers having to submit Pay Bills are hereby required to take special notice of this decision. The following instructions are given for their information and guidance :—

When an Uncovenanted Officer quits a post for one in another District, to which a higher salary is attached, the controlling Officer of the new District shall draw the salary for the time between the quitting of the old Office and the joining of the new one, at the rate of the salary appertaining to the old Office; but not for the full salary of the new appointment, until the Officer transferred shall have actually joined his new Office, when he shall draw for the full amount of his new salary.

Agra and United Service Bank.

THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA having, by Notification of 25th January 1855, signified its intention to dissolve its existing connexion with the Government Agency, the AGRA AND UNITED SERVICE BANK will, on being furnished with the necessary powers, receive charge of Government Paper and Bank Shares from the Agent, and realize the Interest when due and Dividends when declared. The Bank will also sell or invest in these Securities for constituents.

Forms of Letters and Powers of Attorney may be obtained on application to the Bank at Calcutta, or its Branches at Agra and Lahore.

When the proceeds of Government Paper or Shares sold, or of Interest and Dividends realized, are remitted by the Bank's Drafts on England, or on its Indian Branches, no Commission will be charged.

If otherwise paid, or when the Paper or Shares are delivered over, the charge for Commission will be $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

London and Eastern Banking Corporation.

REFERRING to the Government Notification No. 5, dated Fort William, Financial Department, 24th January 1855, giving notice of the intention of Government to withdraw the authority hitherto granted to the Government Agent at Fort William, and to the Accountants General and the Sub-Treasurers at Fort Saint George and Bombay, to act as Agents on behalf of Proprietors of Government Securities, or Shares in the Capital Stock of the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay respectively.

THE LONDON AND EASTERN BANKING CORPORATION offers to receive charge and undertake the safe custody of any Government Securities and Certificates of Shares in the Bank of Bengal, and other local stock, which the Proprietors may wish to deposit with the Bank; and will receive the interest on such Government Securities, and the dividend on such Bank-share certificates, and other local stock, as it falls due, and either remit the amount of such Interest and Dividend to England in Bills of the Bank, or pay the amount as Proprietors may desire.

The London and Eastern Banking Corporation will also receive remittances for investment in Government Securities, Bank of Bengal Shares and other stock, and will negotiate the sale of such Securities and stock, when required to do so.

One quarter per cent. commission will be charged on the sale or purchase of Government Securities and Bank stock, &c., and on realizing Interest and Dividends. But when the proceeds of Government Paper or other stock, or the Interest or Dividends on the same, are to be remitted through the Bank, no commission will be charged.

Is hereby given that the Government Bullock Train will cease to run above Kurnaul after the 15th instant, owing to the road being still impracticable for the successful management of that establishment during the rainy season.

From the above date, all Packages for stations above Kurnaul will, as heretofore, be conveyed in country carts, with every possible degree of care, but there can be no guarantee against possible damage from wet, as many Rivers and Nullahs without bridges have to be crossed.

The Bullock Train between Lahore and Mooltan will probably be maintained throughout the rainy season.

The 15th June 1855.

C. K. DOVE,
Deputy Post-master General.

Notice.

COMPLAINTS having been made of Steam or British Postage, although paid on letters from India, having been levied in England, on the plea that Indian Postage Stamps are not recognised there, the Post-master General, N. W. P., begs to notify, that all letters on which Steam or British Postage is paid, in addition to Indian or British Postage, are stamped with the words "India Paid" in red ink, and that this mark is recognised by the Post Office authorities in England as proof of pre-payment of Steam Postage.

Parties who pay Steam Postage on their letters should note on them Steam or British Postage pre-paid to England, and as Overland letters are now received on the latest sailing dates by a Writer at the Post Office Window, the Postage Stamps will then and there be obliterated and the words "India Paid" stamped in red ink.

Those who pre-pay their letters to England are recommended to give the information above to their correspondents, so that if Steam Postage be demanded from them, they may protest and appeal to His Majesty's Post-masters General for redress.

G. PATON,
Post-master General, N. W. P.

THE CALCUTTA GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JUNE 9, 1855.

Final publication of the List of Persons qualified and liable to serve on Juries in the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, for a Twelvemonth, commencing the 20th of June instant, and published by Order of the said Court.

In addition to those whose Names appear in the following List, it has been ordered by the Court, that the whole List of the Civil Servants of the East India Company is to be considered as virtually included, and that any of the said Civil Servants, who may be at any time resident in Calcutta, are liable to serve on Grand and Special Juries, though their Names are not inserted in the Jury List for the Current Year, except such of the said Civil Servants as are exempted by the Jury Rules.
